

Morris Ardoin Creole Quartet!!

Saturday, December 5, 2009

8:00 PM - 11:00 PM

Irish American Heritage Center

$10.00 Admission

The Morris Ardoin Creole Quartet will play the December monthly dance at the Irish American Heritage Center sponsored by The Midway Ramblers Cajun Band.

Born in 1935 in Evangeline Parish, Morris Ardoin is the oldest son of legendary Cajun/Creole musician Alphonse "Bois Sec" Ardoin. He began to play music at thirteen years old by listening to his cousins and has been going strong for over 60 years now. Although many people know him as one of the last Louisiana Creole fiddlers, few have had the opportunity to see him as the accomplished accordionist and singer that he is.

Come to the Irish Center on December 5th to see and hear the Morris Ardoin Creole Quartet with Dennis Stroughmatt on fiddle play wonderful Creole dance music.

The Morris Ardoin Creole Quartet

Morris Ardoin and Dennis Stroughmatt